

Knowledge Mat: Geography (Around The World)

Subject Specific Vocabulary

atlas	A book full of maps.
country	A nation with its own government and land.
continent	A continuous piece of land, made up of several countries.
landmark	An object or place easily recognised.
human features	Features that are created by people.
physical features	Features natural to the world's landscape.
city	A large town.

North America

South America

Europe

Asia

Africa

Australia

Antarctica

Key Knowledge

- Asia is the world's largest of the seven continents in size and population.
- The world's longest river, the Nile, is found in Africa.
- Antarctica is not only the coldest place on Earth but also the highest, driest, windiest and emptiest.
- Antarctica is the only continent with no countries.