

Year 1 History topic: How am I making history?

We will be investigating the past within living memory. We will explore personal chronology and use photographs to ask and answer questions about the past.

Optional homework tasks: Due Friday 16th October

- Create a personal timeline or book of your own life with photos or drawings.
- Research and create a simple family tree.
- Make a poster about a significant event in your life, such as moving house or getting a baby sibling.
- Interview a family member like a grandparent about events in their life. What was life like when they were little?
- Create a memory box to share with your teacher and class.
